EPISODE 2 OF CHAPTER 1 – FIRST MISSION.

[It's a black screen, white text appears...]

"22nd of June, 2021. 7:30am in the morning..."

[Black screen fades out... Sounds of gunshots were low but clearly heard]

Elaine was speaking to someone on her cell phone: ... Sir I thought we were heading to that camp..... Yes sir... Sighs then closes the phone and wakes the three up Wake up lazy cats, we are going to Kuala Lumpur!

Jack: Rubs his eyes wha... What?! That wasn't our destination

Elaine: The brigade commander changed our main mission...

Bryan: Why?

Elaine: The Vers Empire has launched an all-out assault on Kuala Lumpur, and the UFE defenses there were far from ready... And since we were passing by, we got our mission changed!

Jack: So we are to defend the capital alongside the other UFE infantries now?

Elaine: Against an Airborne and ground assault, Yes! You better stretch up and get ready... This won't be as easy as how our original mission was!

Nash: And who will take care of our original mission?

Elaine: Someone else, I guess?

Jack: Stands up and stretches Ahhhh... Anyway no need to worry about it being hard or easy.. Each of us already done special hardened missions and alone!

Nash: ... We were being secretive, not like this time! And with your current loadout, the chances are being shot in the ass!

Jack: Do I look like I'm giving a damn about anything?

Nash: And that's the problem!

Elaine: Please just focus on our main problem here! We don't have the right equipment for this mission...

Bryan: ... So we will loot the other dead bodies that are nearby when we land!

Elaine: I was going to say that but I think it doesn't matter now... Now you three go get prepared... We will parachute down in 15 minutes!

[They nod then start dressing up the vests and preparing their loadout then wearing the parachutes, there was a small lamp emitting a red light beside them]

[Other planes were flying near them and dropping soldiers who eventually parachute to the ground]

[There was a rectangular hole covered with glass in the ramp, Jack and Bryan looked thro it to see a small view of the capital, as smoke clouds were levitating from destroyed structures everywhere. Fire and dust covered the landscape and muzzle flashes were flying left and right as the sky was cloudy]

[They froze looking at the scene]

Jack: ... That would be our first mission?

Bryan: Gulp Seems so...

Nash: Um.. Looks to Elaine Remind us of our objectives here again?

Elaine: We are just to hold back the Vers's attack on the city as much as possible...

The pilot's voice through the speaker: 10 minutes to dropzone!

Jack: Sighs then turns to them Remember, don't stand still in one spot! Keep dodging. You need to stay low and do NOT punch up... Stick to your training, you're gonna make it through! ... I'm proud to lead you fellas into battle.. Anytime, Anywhere!

Bryan: Alright, lets give them hell!

Elaine: Looking thro the hole ... Cities are supposed to be flattened, right?

Nash: Sound scared private.

Elaine: ... No sir!

Jack: You should be.

Bryan: ... When are we supposed to parachute?

Elaine: Wait for the green light!

[Jack takes lead in front of them and holds into his parachute followed by Elaine, Nash then Bryan]

[Suddenly an AA gun starts shooting at them (and at the other planes as well) till it hit the right wing of their plane and it soon started burning as the plane started to shake]

[They lost their balance by the effect of the hit]

Jack: EVERYBODY DOWN!

Bryan: ...LET'S GET THE HELL OUTTA HERE!

Elaine: No, Wait for the green light...

Nash: if we wait any longer, there won't be a fucking green light!!

Pilot: We're gonna have to pull off!

Jack: NO! Stay on mission, you're taking us in!

Pilot: We must have drifted. I can't see the landmark!

Nash: You heard the lieutenant! Full speed!

[the plane was hardly flying steadily as it zigzagged up and down in the air by the effect of the hit]

Elaine: Looks thro the hole I think that's our stop. Is everybody ready? ... Here we go!

Jack: Drop the ramp!

Pilot: There's no cover!

Jack: Looks to him that was an order, goddamn it, drop it!

[The ramp slowly starts opening up, viewing the full scenery of the destruction that was ahead of them, as they all stared fearfully]

Bryan: Looks down Where are we supposed to jump to?

Jack: Looks behind at him you just follow me and keep your mouth shut. AND ENOUGH QUESTIONS!

[Jack jumped, and soon followed by Elaine]

Nash and Bryan: About to jump

[the right wing of plane explodes, shaking the plane roughly and making Nash and Bryan unbalanced]

Nash: AH! FUCK! Leans on the wall

Bryan: Falls down Jump jump jump jump jump JUMP!!

[They rushed out and jumped immediately, randomly]

[Jack and Elaine lands on the roof of an apartment then they took off their parachute bags and looked around]

Jack: Where's ... Where's Bryan? And Nash?!

Elaine: Looks up

[The plane's wing was burning as the plane was falling down]

Elaine: Up there! Points at two parachutes that eventually landed in a far side behind some buildings ... So what's the plan, lieutenant? looks to Jack

Jack: Easy! We go get them...

[An explosion bursts near them]

Elaine: Guess it won't be easy at all... Takes out her gun

Jack: Takes out his gun and looks around ... I have a plan! Points at a jeep

[a near jeep with a mounted machine gun was idle as the gunner and the driver were dead]

Jack: You'll drive us to them, I will kill any son of a bitch who dares to stand in our way! Let's go! Jumps over the roof's wall to the road and runs to the jeep

Elaine: Don't you wanna know if I could drive or not?! Follows him

Jack: ... Don't you wanna know if I could aim or not?

Elaine: Makes sense! Pulls the dead driver away Ah god...

Jack: Loots the dead gunner then gets him off the jeep and grabs into the MG ... Let's go

Elaine: Turns on the jeep, but the engine doesn't start up I'm having some proble- Looks up to see a Vers drone flying at them and about to shoot JACK JACK!! E-ENEMY DRONE 10 O'CLOCK!!

Jack: SHHIT! Aims and shoots at it immediately, destroying the drone before it could shoot

[a UFE jeep suddenly showed up from behind the buildings, it was running from Vers drones then it gets shot down and destroyed. And then the drones turned to face Jack and Elaine]

Jack: ... Elaine.. START THE DAMN THING!

Elaine: WHAT THE HELL DO YOU THINK I'M DOING?! ... COME ON! START YOU BASTARD! Kicks the jeep, then the engine suddenly starts up .. Oh it actually worked-

Jack: FUCKIN DRIVE AWAY ALREADY! Aims at the drones and shoots at them

[Elaine drives the jeep away from the drones as Jack shoots on them, missing most of his shots, and the drones following them]

[Bryan and Nash were walking slowly next to a wall and looking around]

Nash: Stay sharp... Last thing we want is to get shot from behind!

Bryan: Looks behind and widens his eyes and freezes in his place

Nash: What? What's wro- Turns and looks at the same direction as Bryan's

[a Vers combat super-robot was aiming at them as some drones were flying near it, then it suddenly gets shot with a rocket.. Nash and Bryan looked at the direction where the rocket's dust tail was coming from and they see 5 UFE soldiers, with one holding an RPG]

a soldier: OVER HERE! HURRY! Shoots at the drones

Nash and Bryan: Hurries to them

Bryan: looks at the soldier Daniel?! What are you doing here-

[The drones started firing back at the soldiers as the Vers combat SR restored its conscious from the hit then it aimed at them and fired a missile]

Another soldier: GET DOOWN!

[Explodes near them and one of their friendlies get hit by a fragment]

[a soldier grabs him by the arm]

Bryan: Where the hell are the others?!

Daniel: There are no others! The landing is a mess... I've heard there's a squadron of infantry and air defenses united at a location nearby, we were heading there!

Nash: The coordinates?! Throws smoke grenades around them

Daniel: Points at a direction this way... Come on, we must get away from these drones...! Runs at that direction GUYS LETS GO!

Other soldiers and Bryan and Nash: Follows him

Bryan: You didn't answer me, Daniel! What are you doing here?!

Daniel: It's me who's supposed to ask you.

Bryan: We got our mission changed, you see!

Daniel: And we received an emergency call requesting for backup, and here we are! By our arrival, the Vers combatants have already controlled the city. They shot down most of our planes and the other ones got drifted away! In short, sir... it's a mess!

Nash: Believe it or not, I knew this would happen from the beginning! Since its my first mission alongside Bread and Jackie!

Bryan: Shut that mouth of yours before I make you eat your own balls!

Daniel: LADIES! This is neither the right time nor the right place for this!

Nash: You're lucky, Bread! He just saved your ass with these words!

Bryan: Frowns ... Trash!

[Then they saw a giant dome structure far away that was surrounded by Vers soldiers and drones who were shooting it repeatedly as the dome fired at them back thro small holes that had machine guns drawn]

Daniel: I think that's it!

a soldier: How are we supposed to get there? The enemy is fully surrounding it...

Nash: Glances at some cargo trucks nearby ... Hey Daniel, ever stole a car?

Daniel: Only when I needed to, sir!

Nash: Alright, gather around! Here's the plan...

[They all gather around Nash as they crouch and whispers about their plan]
